FRANCISCA LOPEZ KIMBALL 1841-1907

Los Angeles Star    August 26, 1852

Died at Carricita, near Warner's Ranch, August 20,

Don Damaso Lopez,

a native of Spain, but for many years a resident of New Mexico.

Senor Lopez was the proprietor of a large flock of sheep,

(mentioned in another column as having arrived at Vallecita), and was on his way to the northern part of this state when he sickened and died.

The deceased leaves four children in school at St. Louis, MO.

He was a man of talent and worth, and of the strictest integrity, and in his day performed much good. He had property (the sheep alluded to) sufficiently, if properly administered upon, to provide well for his children. We mention this, the instances are so frequent in California of the property of deceased persons being diverted from the rightful inheritors, as to give rise to the fear that this case may be ranked in the same catalogue. Senor Lopez was well known to many of our good citizens-Messrs. Rowland, Wilson, Alexander and Workman, and it is hoped that they will interest themselves in keeping oversight of his effects, in order that his children may not be defrauded of their rights and be left entirely destitute *
